Support Network Table

Our Support Network Table serves Convention attendees by providing referrals to groups in their areas and by answering questions about homeschooling. It is staffed by leaders of CHEA Support Network groups so there is always an experienced homeschooler available to answer questions for newcomers.

If you are willing to volunteer to work a session assisting homeschoolers and leaders, please fill out this section. Mark your time preferences with 1, 2, 3. We will email confirmation of your assigned session.

◆ The Bay Area Leadership Seminar is open to all who are interested in leadership of private Christian home education groups. If you know of leaders who are not CHEA Support Network Members but who may like to attend, please feel free to invite them.

◆ Children are not allowed at the Leadership Conference. Nursing infants whose parents are considerate of others are welcome.

◆ The 26th Annual Bay Area Convention opens Friday at 6:00 p.m. With the free workshop, "An Introduction to Home Education." Separate registration and admission fees are required for entrance to any part of the Convention except the free session on Friday.

◆ Luncheon will not be served. Attendees are encouraged to patronize hotel eateries. New this year, the hotel now features a Grab & Go @The Market for quick and affordable lunch and snack selections.

◆ Refund Policy: CHEA must pay for contracted space ahead of time, therefore there are no refunds.

◆ Current CHEA Members who are attending the Leadership Seminar but not the Convention may buy an Exhibit Hall Pass to the Friday evening Exhibit Hall Grand Opening. This is only available with Leadership Seminar registration. Exhibit Hall Pass is not needed if you are a current CHEA Member who is registered for the Convention.

Form of Payment

Check or money order payable to CHEA enclosed. If pre-registering more than one family, please use separate checks and registration forms.
